MIDWAY IS EASILY
BIGGEST AND BESTBeats Displays of Other Years —Domestic Exhibits Attract Many

The midway is one of the features that makes the annual fair, "Better and Bigger than Ever," true for it has almost doubled the number of stands that it had last year. Every inch of the grand stand is occupied on either side and stands are being put up in the space between the midway and the race track, making a second midway.

Little of the difficulty that was experienced last year in securing enough high class shows for the midway has been felt this year. Among them are a Dixie Minstrel show, Wild West Riders, Hawaiian singer, and a wrestling show. The blonde who charms and eats snakes has not yet arrived, but doubtless will.

"Vamps" Are Popular
Of course there are lemonade stands galore for which the hot weather is making good business and which are still as popular as ever. Still growing in public favor are the "vamp" dolls in swimming suits or less. They even have them winking now. There are many methods to win these fair dainties. You are good at throwing a ball, you are good at shooting, you are good at win one or try any of the other ways which require less skill than luck. To win a "vamp" would be complete without a merry-go-round and it was there, starting playing its gay music with the first arrivals there yesterday morning. The ferris wheel was also doing business. The midway here always has had the reputation of being one of the best in the state and it will live up to this year.

All Kinds of Poultry
Under the grand stand is the poultry show. Rabbits, guinea pigs, pigeons, pheasants and even a peacock are on view besides the regular breeds of poultry. Pure white fuzzy chickens with tufts on their heads so that only their eyes can be seen and growing roosters that "act as if they own the whole show," as one little boy expressed it, go to make up the best poultry exhibit in the state.

Every cage is filled, according to F. Bradford, who has charge. Although it is early in the season for many farm products, good samples of Rock county's grain, vegetables and fruit are there on the bleachers under the grand stand. O. S. Morse has charge of the vegetable booth. Apples, peaches, pears, have been put out there.

Good Things to Eat
All departments in the floral hall, which are the cooking, sewing, china, art and flower departments are being rapidly filled. Such cooking as is on exhibit has never been so good as this year. The Ferris wheel, John L. Terry, who, with Mrs. Herbert and Vern Terry, is conducting that department. The cases are filled with cakes, rolls, cookies and bread.

Beautiful flowers, although of a small variety, are shown in the pasteurized floral exhibit. The amateur exhibit of cut flowers is somewhat small. Mrs. Ed. Stabler is in charge.

Art and china exhibit, in charge of Miss E. Mae Clark with Miss Thelma Clark assisting, is large and beautifully arranged. Eugene Fish has an interesting exhibit of old coins and paper money. The exhibit of Indian relics is also interesting. Miss James Quinn and Miss Patterson have charge of the embroidery and needlework.

The DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

NO LONGER PRINCE CHARMING, JUST PLAIN HARRY.

After the first shock followed by a great desire to laugh, and laugh I did. Most pitifully. Finally, between sobs, and she, too, joined me. We had the best time ever between us, and, while wiping our eyes we agreed that that was the only way to take care of it.

I expect that if I live very much longer with some of my friends, Romance will slowly curl up and die within my tender young bosom. But it may all be for the best at that.

Not only has Prince Charming, nay, he has succumbed to the same fate, just plain Harry, to me now—a wife, but twins of six years old, little girls, plus a young son of seven and one sorry for poor Mrs. Harry, somehow or other, but as Nessa says, she knows her Harry, thoroughly, and less than a year ago, she was as much as she chooses, for he always does run back to her, happily.

Makes the kissed ones feel so good, this information about this Don Juan, eh, what? Well, I still think that it is our foolish training that is at fault. The other girls, or myself or the other girls, that he has kissed. We don't ever discover how to tell a lover from a husband. And there is a way, so they say.

Nessa was amused to death at my story of Harry and his love for me. "Lord, honey, he makes love to every new face that he meets," said she brutally. "He just can't help himself and no one ever takes him seriously. But he is a fellow Carrot Jam—Grind enough carrots to make one and one-half cups; grind two oranges and one lemon and all Measure. To this mix pure add one cup water and cook until tender, then add as many cups of sugar as carrot mixture. Cook very slowly until consistency of marmalade.

Canning Peas—To shell peas, pour boiling water over them and let boil a few minutes; they will shell easily. Pour boiling water over peas, drain and pour cold water over them. Pack in cans which have been sterilized in boiling water; add one teaspoon salt to each quart peas, cover with boiling water, put rubbers and lids on cans, screw tight to see they fit right, then loosen slightly to admit air. Put in boiler with wire rack or boards in bottom to keep cans from breaking. Cover with hot water one inch over cans and boil three hours after commencing to boil.

Remove one at a time and seal tight. Do not remove lids after canning. Guaranteed to keep if directions are followed.

Delicious Liver Dumplings—One and one-half pounds of calf's liver and one cup beef suet ground, one and one-half cups toasted bread crumbs, three good-sized onions fried in butter, two tablespoons flour, two eggs, salt, paprika, parsley and buttermilk to suit taste. Mix well together, then drop by spoonfuls in well-cooked meat broth and boil 30 minutes.

Another girl in all the years he was away from me, I did not do that way; I went with all the boys and was doomed to drift together again and he tells me I am the only one he has ever wanted. Some way I can't help but feel hurt at times because of the way he treated me. Please tell me what to do.

HOPE.
I would certainly forget the past if I were you. The young man was too young to be responsible for what he did then. His treatment of you now is what counts. At the age of seventeen you should not be taking things so seriously.

Lately he has come home and seems almost wild over me and so does all of his family. When I ask him why he treated me so he always says he couldn't help it. I am sure he is telling me the truth. Why his mother did this I can't tell. I come from a good family and have always been a nice girl and worked hard. He is a nice manly boy. His boy friend who works in the city with him tells me he never was with

Heart and Home Problems

LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO MRS. THOMPSON, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of twenty-one and I have five brothers who are smaller than myself. I am in love with a boy who is twenty-three and I have been going with him for three years. Before he went with me he was going with another girl and she got mad at him. Since then he has been going with me. I know he loves her, for he has been with her three times lately. I do not want him to go with her and have told him, but he says he wants to go once in a while with her and I know the way he talks he likes her. I have told him over and over again not to go with her and I have said I would not go with him any more if he did, but he does not pay attention to me.

I know you will say give him up and go with some one else, but I can never go with any one else, for I love him too much. Then you are alone I think he cares for me, but when the other girl is around I think he doesn't. What shall I do?

BLUE-EYED SWEETHEART.

Of course you can go with some one else and learn to care as much for him as you do for this young man. To plead and threaten is useless. Never say again that you do not want him to go with the other girl; such a statement shows you are jealous and weakens your position. Either make up your mind that you will be satisfied to be his friend and not his sweetheart, or give him up.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: There is a boy who goes to the same church I Pork Liver Loaf—Parboil one-half pound of pork liver and put through a food chopper. Place in bowl and add two onions minced fine and one cup of fine bread crumbs. Serve hot with cold salad or chili sauce.

Flemish Pot Pie—Cut the meat left from the beef a la mode into small pieces. Line a well greased casserole dish one-half inch thick with mashed potatoes and then add green peppers, parboiled until tender, two cups of cream sauce, the balance of the gravy left from the meat. Cover with crust of pastry. Bake in slow oven 50 minutes; serve from dish.

Jellied Veal—Boil veal or beef shank until meat and bones separate. Remove the bone. Season the broth to taste. Dice the meat, place in a mold, pour the broth over it and allow to cool. Sufficient meat on the shank, other meat might be added. This is a very inexpensive meat dish.

BELOIT CYCLISTS HIT BIG SAND PILE

Alfonso Gunderson and Ralph George, both of Beloit, who were thought to have been seriously injured Sunday evening when the motorcycle and side-car which they were riding ran into a pile of sand on the Beloit-Janesville concrete road just this side of Town Line, were walking about the streets of that city today with their faces and hands swathed in bandages but apparently none the worse for the accident.

The victims' story is that they were going along the road at about 60 miles per hour when they saw a car coming and in order to avoid hitting it, the driver turned into a pile of sand. The two were thrown from the machine and were picked up in an adjacent field, unconscious. Those who took them to the Beloit hospital say that the two did not regain consciousness until they arrived in Beloit.

Attending doctors found that they suffered only from cuts about their hands and face, and they were released from the hospital as soon as bandaged.

CHANDLER SIX

Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

The Chandler Dispatch Car

It Offers So Much More For So Much Less

The Chandler Six was never in stronger position than right now, at the height of the 1920 season. Chandler price has always, regardless of the demand, been based on cost of production plus a fair profit, and nothing else. An oversold condition of the trade has never moved the price up.

And today, the Chandler is, by long odds, the most closely-priced fine car in the American market.

Chandler holds its leadership among Sixes so distinctly because it offers so much more for so much less. It leads because of its endurance and great motor, unsurpassed for flexibility of power. It leads because of its sturdy construction throughout and the character of service it renders to more than eighty thousand owners.

OHIO THE BATTLEGROUND.
Ohio will be the battle ground of both parties for the presidency. That state for years was a republican stronghold and under normal conditions is still republican. Gov. Cox won in a split of the republican party in 1912. The combined progressive and regular republican vote in that year would have swamped Mr. Cox. He was defeated when he ran a second time and on the third running was elected by a small vote over Frank P. Willis. He was carried along by the overwhelming vote of 1916 cast for Wilson in the state so that we would be kept out of war.
But there will be no accident this year. The line is drawn closely. Harding won in an election for senator by more than 70,000 over the next man on the republican ticket. His plurality of 102,000 is an indication of his popularity. With a party united behind him, with Cox carrying all the onus of the Wilson administration, with Senator Harding pressing the fighting and the democratic party of the state on the defensive in the Cox state administration, the contest in Ohio will take on the character of the old days when "seething" would be the correct word for a political campaign in the Buckeye state.

MEETING THE GROWTH OF THE CITY.
Legislation by the city for adding precincts to wards in order to care for the voters at both the primary and general election has become an absolute necessity in Janesville. It is late to begin that work now. When the report was made of the census of the city the step should have been taken to add a number of wards and not merely precincts. As it is the city has a minority representation on the county board. There should be at least ten wards in the city. The statistics provide that a population of 500 is enough for a ward.
Janesville is weak in the county board representation. It has four members less than the city of Beloit. It ought to have representation on the board in keeping with the population and the growth of the city.

Take the third ward as an example. It has grown rapidly and one voting precinct can no longer care for the number of registered voters within its limits. But the division should not stop there, it ought to go farther and divide the ward into at least two additional wards and a part of a third. Immediate steps for this legislation should be taken and the city council will find that an ordinance providing for such a change will meet with popular approval. The need for additional representation on the county board is great.
Janesville with the large amount of taxes paid for the support of the county should have a voice in keeping with the expenditure. As it is the city is lame and cuts a less figure than any unit of far less population and tax-paying potentiality.

PRICE LEVELS LOWERING.
Apparently the wave of extravagance which made profiteering one of the popular indoor sports during the last year, has passed, and there are indications of a normal and slow decline in the price levels. Perhaps the most significant of these is the pronounced falling off in the demand for luxuries, and the subsiding of the wave of extravagance which so recently swept the country.
The people are no longer purchasing silk shirts and fur coats and diamonds, but are saving their money for more necessary articles or perhaps for investment.
It is natural and proper that the return to normal conditions should manifest itself first with the sales of luxuries, but other hopeful indications are not lacking. The labor department reports a decline in wholesale prices during the last thirty days of one per cent. Although this gain for the consumer may seem small, it marks a reaction against the steady upward trend and promises better things to come.

A survey of the status of production also gives reason for optimism. From all parts of the country come reports of bumper crops of wheat and other cereals. Meats, fish and vegetables are now stored in quantities far greater than a year ago.
The vast drain upon American foodstuffs occasioned by the world war has to a large extent been relieved by foreign production.
With the railways daily gaining in efficiency, with the constantly improving labor situation, with the readjustment from war to peace conditions practically completed, with thrift and economy replacing extravagance and foolish spending, there is every reason for the nation to look to the future with optimism. Better times are coming.

Villa has surrendered. He took a couple of drinks of cognac and said he was ready to retire to private life. Had he lubricated with some of the wood alcohol drinks dispensed by the boot-legger, he would have retired permanently, and to one place.

Increase in the wages of the employees of the express companies came as a necessary corollary to the rise of wages of the rail men. No one will deny the justice of the grant. The men have waited a long time for this action.

This is Janesville day at the fair, and while they may not know it in Washington so that the government offices are closed, it is a lot more important to us than the league of nations.

No, kind reader, the nonpartisan league candidate in Wisconsin is no relative of the great James G. Blaine. The latter was a statesman and never a demagogue.

Mr. Wilson says we are going to save Poland.
How many soldiers will we need?

Detroit Attracts Tourists
By FREDERIC J. HASKIN Detroit, Mich., Aug. 11.—Detroit is becoming a great tourist town. Someone has suggested that it is because so many people want to see where their autos come from, but anyway the city is always filled with visitors. Laden with cameras, umbrellas, maps, milk chocolate and all the other paraphernalia indispensable to sight-seers. The city who used to buy round trip tickets to Niagara Falls now extend their journey to Detroit, stopping to get here before the first gorgeous luster is worn off their wedding rings.
Everywhere you turn you see a large yellow sight-seeing bus, and it is always suggesting under the hood, and as each passenger pays two dollars for the trip, you can see that the bus company likes tourists.
But all the facilities of Detroit are equally over-produced. Every ferryboat which leaves the Woodward avenue docks is packed with admiring tourists; every trolley car carries its quota of inquiring strangers; every lunch room has its party of excursionists, while the hotels do such a thriving business that an arriving guest is usually ushered to his room just as the baggage of the former occupant is going out the door. Indeed, it is often necessary to sit patiently waiting for the baggage to be removed. Provided you can find a place to sit, that is, because the tourists also monopolize the lobbies. It is impossible to walk about without bumping into one of them, and as for elevators, they fairly creak with them.

In fact, the elevator was in the other morning did more than that. It creaked. One instant it was going up, and the next it was coming down. It had stopped midway between two floors.
Immediately hysterical giggling broke forth among the feminine passengers, who were visiting school teachers, while the only other occupant, a small, foreign-looking priest, sat perplexed and disturbed. Apparently he had become accustomed to the dizzy activity of American elevators.

"I shall have to report this," he said when the porter came with a ladder. "This is what comes of elevating whole conventions at once." One of the reasons Detroit attracts so much tourist travel, of course, is the fact that it advances itself so extensively. No one will deny that Detroit is one of the most attractive cities of the middle west. It has a personality and charm quite different from the rest, but this charm is appreciated by none quite so much as by Detroit.
In its own estimation, Detroit is perfect.
"Beautiful and big," Detroit is the modest term it has selected for itself, and the only way in which you can get it to admit any possible faults is by yourself pretending a violent infatuation for it.

We have discovered that if you want to be taken into the confidence of a city and given a private view of its closed skeletons, you have only to follow this method. Criticize it and you will have praise it and they will point out its unpleasant features just to be contrary. Even the local chamber of commerce will forget itself under these circumstances. This is from the Detroit chamber of commerce that we learned that while Detroit is beautiful and dynamic, it is also un-healthily overdeveloped; that it is full of petty grat; that the housing conditions in its negro section are a disgrace, and that everybody is becoming more or less peevish owing to the terrific tension of rapid money-making.

Detroit makes the impression of running chiefly on its nervous energy, under the constant menace of a nervous breakdown. Of course, the rapid accumulation of millions of sightseers, as well as dollars, is a harrowing business, so that the citizens of Detroit cannot be blamed if they do appear a trifle preoccupied and nervous. They are not, of course, the reading bookstores recharged. "It's bad enough to have a rush of people like this all during the hot weather, but the questions they bring with them are worse."

The tourists do not seem to notice any of the city's faults. They are too much immersed in the problem of their own meanderings and the delight with the many really delectable sightseeing opportunities of Detroit to bother much about its disposition.
Belle Isle Park, one of the most beautiful natural playgrounds possessed by any city, is located on an island in the center of the Detroit river, and about three miles from the heart of Detroit, and is reached by ferry. The boats making the trip are equipped with the same as excursion steamers, with an upper deck containing comfortable chairs, and a pleasant cabin. It requires an hour to make the round trip to and from Belle Isle, but many of the passengers bring their lunches and remain on the ferry all day, there getting several hours of river travel for the price of 15 cents.

Besides an aquarium and a small zoo, the park also contains eight baseball diamonds, several tennis courts, a five and a half mile automobile sho drive, a large boathouse which supplies canoes and rowboats for boating on the canals which lead into the park, and an excellent bathing place, always crowded during the summer months.

Belle Isle, too, possesses a romantic history. It was bought from the Chippewa and Ottawa Indians in 1789 for eight barrels of rum, three rolls of tobacco, six pounds of vermilion and a barrel of gunpowder. The total value being $1,000. Rattlesnakes were so plentiful on the island at that time that it was necessary to put razor-back hogs on it to get rid of them. This gave it the name of Isle au Cochons, or Hog Island, subsequently changed to Belle Isle by the early Detroiters.
During the Pontiac conspiracy, it was to Belle Isle that Pontiac retired after the discovery of his plot to oust the garrison of Fort Detroit, and laid siege to the city for five months. Some years later the island became private property, and it was not until 1879 that the city of Detroit bought it for the sum of $200,000. Today it is worth millions.

Another ferry trip which appeals to tourists is to Windsor, Canada, directly opposite Detroit, and reached in five minutes. There is nothing to see at Windsor, except a small, dirty town, surrounded by drab, ugly little suburbs, but there is a long driveway skirting the river, which affords an excellent view of the opposite shore of Detroit.
Nevertheless, Windsor daily receives almost as many tourists as Detroit, and foreign flags, glimpses of foreign soldiers, and above all Canadian postal cards being inexpressibly dear to the hearts of the sightseeing public.

There can be no doubt of the devotion of the women of Janesville to the plan for a proposed woman's building, a center of activity for the employed girls of the city and provision for some central point of action in doing many things which in other ways we are organized to do for the young men. The fact that the Chamber of Commerce has gone behind the movement and that many forces are working for its success should eventuate in concrete results.

North Dakota's taxes have been increased 200 per cent under the nonpartisan league government. North Dakota is the only state where the nonpartisan league ever got a foothold. One of the factors in placing Wisconsin in the league column will be a vote for Seaman and a division of the only opposition to the success of the non-partisan ticket.

If Villa will come to America we'll bet he succeeds Hayward as the head of the I. W. W.

We do not notice a mad rush to help Poland by the Allies.

Class does not ask justice—it wants power.

I've grieved a lot an' fretted over things I've thought were great, I've whimpered when I've suffered 'neath the burdening of fate, I've thought it most important that some dream or plan o' mine Should blossom to perfection to complete my life's design, But I've seen my hopes in ruin an' my proud-est structures fall, An' I've learned they weren't the big things that I thought them, after all.
I've wondered what would happen should disaster come my way, I've thought my peace depended on the fortunes of fate, I used to think I couldn't stand the anguish of defeat, But I've always seemed to weather every storm I've had to meet; Oh, I've had to take my losses—some were great an' some were small, But life isn't built on money, fame, or conquest, after all.

Friends have met me after failures with the same old handclasp, An' my own heart on lovin' spite of all I've failed to do; I have come through disappointments which I thought would break my heart, But the losses didn't matter—this old world was just the same;
There was gladness all about me, I could hear the children call,
An' I found that I'd been frettin' over trifles, after all.

All that matters, when it's over an' the battle's won or lost, Is the way it leaves your record, not its gold an' silver cost.
Man has no cause for grievin' if his hands are black with shame, But tomorrow he'll be smilin' an' his world be just the same, Spite of failure, spite of disaster, if he has the strength to crawl An' pride lights the home he's keepin' that's the big thing, after all.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT
By ROY K. MOULTON.

DO YOU KNOW THIS AGENT?
When a chap of much endurance Tries to live his life in peace, Tells me of the average rate Of the ones who meet their fate, I can stand it.
If he talks about my wife, (I've been single all my life), He tells me how to save,
I don't mind; I let him rave,
I can stand it.

Down my spine a thrill he sends When he talks of my divided I don't wish to start a fight When he mentions "widow's plight," I can stand it.
(Here today and gone tomorrow, This the phrase that causes sorrow.)

These words on the air do float, Then the surety gets my goat.
When that agent says good-bye,
Not a tear will dim my eye,
I can stand it.

REALLY HATED TO LEAVE.
I take this method to thank Sheriff Frazar and Jailor W. C. for the kind treatment accorded me while a prisoner in the parish jail.
The food was good and wholesome, the beds neat and everything about the jail is kept in a clean, neat condition.—N. A. Kingrey in

OPINIONS OF OTHERS
DOCTOR'S VIEW OF AMERICAN MENTALITY.
Arthur Sweeney, a doctor at St. Paul, recently turned the attention of the medical association of southern Minnesota to the psychological tests made on white soldiers in the American army. The findings prove so surprising as to be bewildering.
It was ascertained that the average of intelligence among American men is that of a child about 12 years old. As the tested applicants for enlistment were very numerous and came from every class of society and every section of the country, the findings hold good for Americans as a whole. We have boasted of the high grade of American citizenship, the intelligence of the laborer and the superior quality of rural intellect. But this close, military appraisal of the mentality of the graduates of our schools and colleges intimates in no uncertain terms that the foundations of our boast require shoring up.
The tests were applied to men between 21 and 31.
Their ages were between 21 and 31. They were picked men that the draft boards had eliminated—criminals, cripples, imbeciles, and the insane, the sick and the socially inadequate.
The average for the residue surpasses the absolute average from the whole.

The tests were shrewdly calculated for determining actual intelligence. Seven groups were outlined. Distribution of their percentages or proportions to our population of 100,000,000 (in round numbers) would work out 8,000,000 very superior Americans, 10,000,000 high average ones; 20,000,000 normal or dull ones, 15,000,000 inferior ones, and 7,000,000 feeble minds.
The percentages of the seven groups in our total population would stand respectively at 5, 10, 15, 25, 20, 15, and 7 per cent. One in 20 Americans is a very superior person, one in four an average person.

An average group of men between 21 and 31 has the mentality of a boy between 13 and 14 1/2 years of age. In other words, the men's minds had ceased to grow. Average of military and average of intelligence go hand in hand. The tests may not be infallible nor measure mentality absolutely, but they can be accepted as a ready means of judging the mental capacity of an individual. The practical lesson of the findings is that the people must be educated to the utmost and the schools and teachers be strengthened at any cost.—Spokesman-Review (Ind.
Rep.)

LOOKING BACKWARD
FORTY YEARS AGO
August 11, 1880.—This afternoon a man in the employ of George Grundy, living about three miles north of the city, was badly kicked by a horse. The injuries were in the side and lower limbs and broken bones. Frank Smith has returned from New York and other cities in the East on business.

THIRTY-ONE YEARS AGO
August 11, 1889.—Sunday.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
August 11, 1900.—Sweltering heat prevails all over the country from one coast to the other, and according to the weather report, no rain in sight. Crops are being damaged because of the continued dry spell.—Shirt waists have made their appearance here and are being worn by the most fashionable young men. They are pleated in front and back.

TEN YEARS AGO
August 11, 1910.—Isaac Lee, the Beloit negro, was given a life sentence at Waupun in court this morning for killing a Beloit Italian. The shot the negro while he was sleeping and then hid in an oak field where he was found by a Beloit officer and brought to the city. He didn't seem to realize what his sentence meant.

inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail. Address Dr. Wm. Brady, Gazette.
THE STAIR-CASE TEST
After all, there is a lot of satisfaction in knowing positively whether one has 60 per cent or 90 per cent of young man who knows he can use his two fists if necessary to defend himself or in defense of his principles.
The quickness of the mind is not boxing which every well educated young man should have. A man and better boy up to par, physically or functionally, rather, is a greater success in actual life than the individual who is not so well acquainted with himself.
One of the best tests of an individual's functional efficiency, pointing particularly to the cardiovascular system (heart and arteries) but also to the general physical system state as well, is the staircase test. This is made as follows: Count the pulse after you have been sitting at rest 15 minutes.
Then climb up to the top of a flight of stairs from 15 to 18 steps, and immediately count again. The normal average increase in pulse rate in the second minute following this exercise of exertion is not more than 25 beats in the minute. If the increase in pulse rate exceeds 25 beats there is something radically wrong with your health and when your doctor has determined that there is no serious lesion requiring treatment, you had better get busy and come back to life.
A still more informative test—like something under a gate that makes more noise than a pig consists in running up a flight of stairs.
After the immediate acceleration of pulse rate thus produced has passed (which should be within three minutes), and during the slowing of the pulse the force of the heart beat becomes noticeably greater. You will feel the throb of the heart against against your ribs when the pulse has almost quite returned to its normal resting place. This stronger or more forceful heart action following sudden brisk exertion, with the pulse slowed down or slowing down below the normal resting rate, is proof of the functional capacity of the heart to respond to exertion—and if you have this proof you need not worry about any murmur, valvular leakage or any other sign of heart disease.

The doctor may have discovered your heart is functionally normal, and that is the important thing.
Soup Bowl Test.
A simpler test of the functional condition of the heart to eat a bowl made by standing before a soap-box or chair, 18 inches high, and stepping up on it and down again five times in 15 seconds by the watch. Both feet must be brought up on the box and down on the floor each time. The pulse rate should not increase more than 25 beats in the minute after this exertion and should return to the standing rate before the minute is up.
QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
Will the Baby Be Cross-eyed?
Does it make a baby cross-eyed to look at the baby? Baby looks over his head when there isn't anyone standing there. (Mrs. G. R. P.)
The quickness of the mind is not looking the place over in that bewilder way one does on coming to after an operation or a left hand under the chin. Don't worry. Pretty soon he'll get his bearings and then will keep the rest of the family cross-eyed.
Cough Medicine.
Last winter I only used a recipe for a harmless cough medicine in your column. We tried it and found it very effective. I have lost the formula and am writing you for it. It contains cod liver oil, peppermint, cinnabar, and sugar. We've forgotten how much. (B. L. W.)

Q. Are there more whites than negroes in the U. S.?
A. There are no complete statis-places the whites at a figure between 100,000,000 and 120,000,000. Negroes

Q. How long has shorthand been known? G. L.

A. From references made to skilled writers in ancient literature, the inventor of shorthand, the shorthand was known long before the Christian era. The first authentic knowledge of the art dates to the first century before Christ. The pioneer of Roman shorthand was Marcus Furius Tiro, secretary and librarian to Cicero, who devised a system which was based on the Latin alphabet. It was later it was improved to such an extent that reporters of the time could keep pace with the speakers by writing in shorthand. The system of short-hand into disuse between the fifth and ninth centuries, and modern stenography dates from 1538.

Q. What was the Locofoco party?
H. E. F.

A. This was a name originally applied to the radical or equal rights faction of the democratic party in 1835-37, later used by the whigs to designate the democratic in general.
The name was given to the party because of the use of the word "locofoco" in the name of the party. For 10 years or more.

Q. How is the name of the city of Joliet pronounced? M. K.

A. There was so much discussion concerning the pronunciation of the name that the city council passed an ordinance setting forth that the of-

Q. Was the inventor of life-boats an American? B. G. G.

A. The first life-boat was invented in 1784 by Lionel Lukin, a native of London, England. His "antoni-gible boat," attracted little attention, and a later design developed from his model was for H. Greenhead the title of "Frank of the life-boat." The American father of the life-boat was Joseph Francis. He was voted a gold medal by Congress for his inand said to be the largest ever given by the Government to an individual, was presented to Francis at the Q. How many points make a game in Cossino? H. F.

A. There are two ways to count points. Each deal is a game in itself and the majority of the 11 points wins, but the sweeps may make it a tie. Second, 21 points is a game. If both players reach 21 in the same deal, the points score out in the following order: cards, spades, Big Casino, Little Casino, aces and sweeps. If one has a card of their score in order of spades, clubs, hearts, diamonds.

Opening of Races Marred by the Protest of 2:25 Pace

Horse Allowed to Finish Race After Falling Out; Heaviest Program Today

The crack of the whip; the pound of the hoofs; the wake of the dust—and racing is back again at "The Lexington of the North" for another season of spirited competition. Yesterday was the first of the four days at the track of the local park association at the fair grounds. Today, Janesville day, will see the greatest drawing card of all.

Before one of the largest of first day crowds, the races yesterday went off in good fashion. First places in all, however, were rather one-sided happenings, but the running of the winners was such as to far outlast everything in the field.

An occurrence happened in the 2:25 pace, one mile, for a purse of $500, that has seldom, if ever, taken place on any track in the country. There were three heats in this race, which was won with comparative ease by Jolla Light, b. m., by Blinjohn, Hutchinson, up, owned by R. Hutchinson, Capron, Ill. A Milwaukee entry, John, b. g., by Direct Hall, owned and driven by M. Weesjohn, was pacing of the time in good fashion, standing back with the pack, when on the second turn of the half mile broke, the horse fell and the public, craned and fell lengthwise across the course. Weesjohn withdrew from the heat, but went back and finished the race with any adverse ruling by the judge, John L. Fisher, this city. Protest was made immediately after John announced as second place, caught in the arms of the American trotting association being that once a horse is withdrawn it cannot be put back. The final decision of the officials will be announced at the track this afternoon.

Southman Horse Killed
When the horse fell, none of the other drivers was near enough to cause any accident. Neither horse nor rider suffered any ill effects. In the first heat of the 2:25 Dueses Wild, s. g. w. The Earl, Owen up, shot out in the lead it was not long before Jolla Light, b. m., by Blinjohn, shot out in the lead. Dueses Wild finished fourth and was then withdrawn with the announcement that she was taken sick. In the other heats, horse Jolla Light jumped into the lead with his only real competitor being John.

Good 3-Year Old
Some interesting racing was exhibited in the 3-year old half mile pace for a purse of $200. Exmore, b. s. by Bromore, Colter up, had no difficulty in leading the field in both heats. The other three places, however, changed with lots of fighting. Jolla Light, b. m., by Blinjohn, finally coping off second place.

Little interest was manifested in the 2-year old trot, half mile, purse $150. With only three starters the contest was the same in each heat, the winner being Blenior, G. b. f. by Guy Asworthy, (Loomis).

Goodyear Tires for Small Cars Are Popular Because Economical

There is nothing but disappointment in buying cheaply made tires that are announced as wonderful bargains at a few dollars each and then fail after brief terms of service.

Get exceptional mileage at exceedingly low cost in Goodyear Tires, of the 30x3, 30x3½ and 31x4-inch sizes, built of Goodyear-selected materials and with Goodyear skill and care.

Due to their precise manufacture in the world's largest tire factory devoted to these sizes, their quality is most economically produced and therefore most economically employed.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Maxwell, Dorr or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires; ride farther and fare better.

EXCITING PONY RACES AT FAIR

Coming up in the last 30 yards and winning by a length, Roy Huginlin, riding a little tan pony, won the first half-mile pony race at the fair grounds yesterday against a field of seven by a length. With all boys riding bareback, the race was exciting throughout with constant juggling for positions. Clark Van Gelder was second and Iva Woodman third.

Pushing his pony on and sticking to it although it appeared as if he might be outdistanced at several times, Edward Ray took the second half-mile pony race by a length and a half. Nip and tuck racing gave Edward Smiley, second place.

In the running pony race with two entrants, the trailing horse, jockeyed by Robert Wallace, took the lead on the last turn and shot under the wire five lengths to the good. Charles Rockwell took second.

Enthusiasm ran high among the children that crowded the grandstand, while the older people were on their feet for the close finishes.

DODGE TWIRLS NOLANS TO WIN OVER CUBANS

Portage, Aug. 11.—The McCoy-Nolan team of Milwaukee thoroughly avenged themselves for the two stinging defeats handed them by the Cuban All Stars last Saturday and Sunday, when they trimmed the dusky visitors here yesterday by a score of 7 to 1. The hitting of the supply company team and the pitching of Dodge were the outstanding features of the game.

Dodge, whose stellar work in the Central State league has stamped him as one of the best semipro hurriers in the game, hurled airtight ball and retired twelve men via the strikeout route.

SAMSONS ARE OFF ON ILLINI TOUR

Perrin's crew of Samson Tractors left town this morning on the 3:30 for Chicago on their way to tour central Illinois. This afternoon the bunch will stop off at White Sox park and watch the American league crew tackle the Washington Senators and incidentally see their friend, Eddie Charrily of Beloit, hold down backstop position for Washington.

Tomorrow the Samsonies appear at Lawrenceville against the Havalines of the Industrial league. Papa Perrin is certain that a victory will be garnered there.

On Friday, the Tractors jump over to Vandalia for an afternoon's fun.

OLYMPIC CEREMONIES TO OPEN SATURDAY

Antwerp, Aug. 11.—Everything is in readiness or the ceremonies for the opening of the stadium in which the seventh Olympic games will be held. These will be held on Saturday, and it was with some pride that Count Henry De Baliet-Latour, president of the Belgian Olympic committee, announced today that every detail had been cared for and that the official programs for Saturday's event would be issued tomorrow. Today was an off day in the Olympic contests as the bicycle races in the Velodrome closed yesterday, and the bicycle road race will not be run until tomorrow.

What's done as much as anything else to fill up the movie houses

LOOK at the crowds that step out of their cars in front of the movies every summer evening.

The movie managers would be renting half of their theatres for store space, if it weren't for the automobile.

It is typical of Americans that they took to the automobile as a matter of course—just as they have to the movies and to every other great invention of the last half century.

And the same thing has happened everytime. Taking things as they come is a fine way to foster waste and extravagance.

As regards tires, the comeback is about due. People are pretty near through paying for something that isn't there when they look for it.

What a man pays for in a tire is quality—not a limited number of miles or the privilege of getting a rebate in case the miles don't come up to the limit.

U. S. Tires are guaranteed as to quality—with no limitation of mileage.

And that holds just as good for the small car tire as for the biggest U. S. Tire we've got. There's only one standard of quality with U. S.—and the size of the car has nothing whatever to do with it.

We represent U. S. Tires in this town. You'll find it worth while to talk to us before you buy any more tires.

The Mystery of Hartley House

By CLIFFORD S. RAYMOND

(Copyright by George H. Doran Co.)
"Didn't you?" he exclaimed. "You are here to see Richard Dobson, aren't you?"
"Yes," I answered. "I have the answer to the thing. I know why this man Sidney never was younger than 20 years. You are here to see Richard Dobson, aren't you?"
"Arthur Dobson is dead," he said.
"I know he is as a name; but he is not dead," I said.
"Mr. Sidney is dead," I said. "I have come here to tell Richard Dobson that he can go free. I did not know that Arthur Dobson was still alive."

BILLY WHISKER

By FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

When the potatoes were peeled for breakfast the next morning, the skins were given to Billy and he tasted as good to him after the long fast, as fresh turnips did when he was young.
Just as the sun lighted the tops of the mountains, the Chinaman rang a large bell that hung on a high pole near the way to the cowboys' breakfast, and as its peals rang out on the morning air it was answered by the marking of what seemed to be dozens of cowboys' hoofs as they came from the hills and valleys, in reality there was perhaps not half that number; a peculiarity of their bark being that it seems to double itself and to sound as if coming from

Dandruff Soon Ruins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.
It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash out the dandruff. The only way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arsenic; apply it at night when retiring; wash enough to moisten the scalp and rub in gently with the finger tips.
By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.
You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Colds and Flu, and many other ailments, at a cost of a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages. ## Dinner Stories

A traveler passing through a small town noticed a post on which was marked the height to which the river had risen during a recent flood.
"Do you mean to say," he asked a native, "that the river rose as high as that?"
"Oh, no," replied the native; "but the village children used to rub off the original mark, so the mayor decided it to be put higher up so as to be out of their reach."

There is one case of it. Reuben Bickel, car inspector, 202 Race St., Janesville, says: "I was feeling weak and run down and my kidneys caused me a lot of annoyance. The secretions passed too frequently and with a burning sensation. My back ached and I could hardly turn in bed. When I took cold, I was always worse and my head would whirl around with dizziness. A friend advised me to try Donan's Kidney Pills, so I got two boxes at Sherer's Drug Store. After using them, I felt like a different man. My back ached no more and the backaches left me entirely."

"Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Donan's Kidney Pills—the same that Dr. W. B. Donan, Foster-McIlwaine Co., Buffalo, N. Y., has used."

THREE REASONS--WHY HOLLAND PIANO ARE A GOOD BUY

(1) EACH HOLLAND PIANO is their best Holland. They manufacture but one piano and each piano contains the best selected materials. There are no second or third grades.

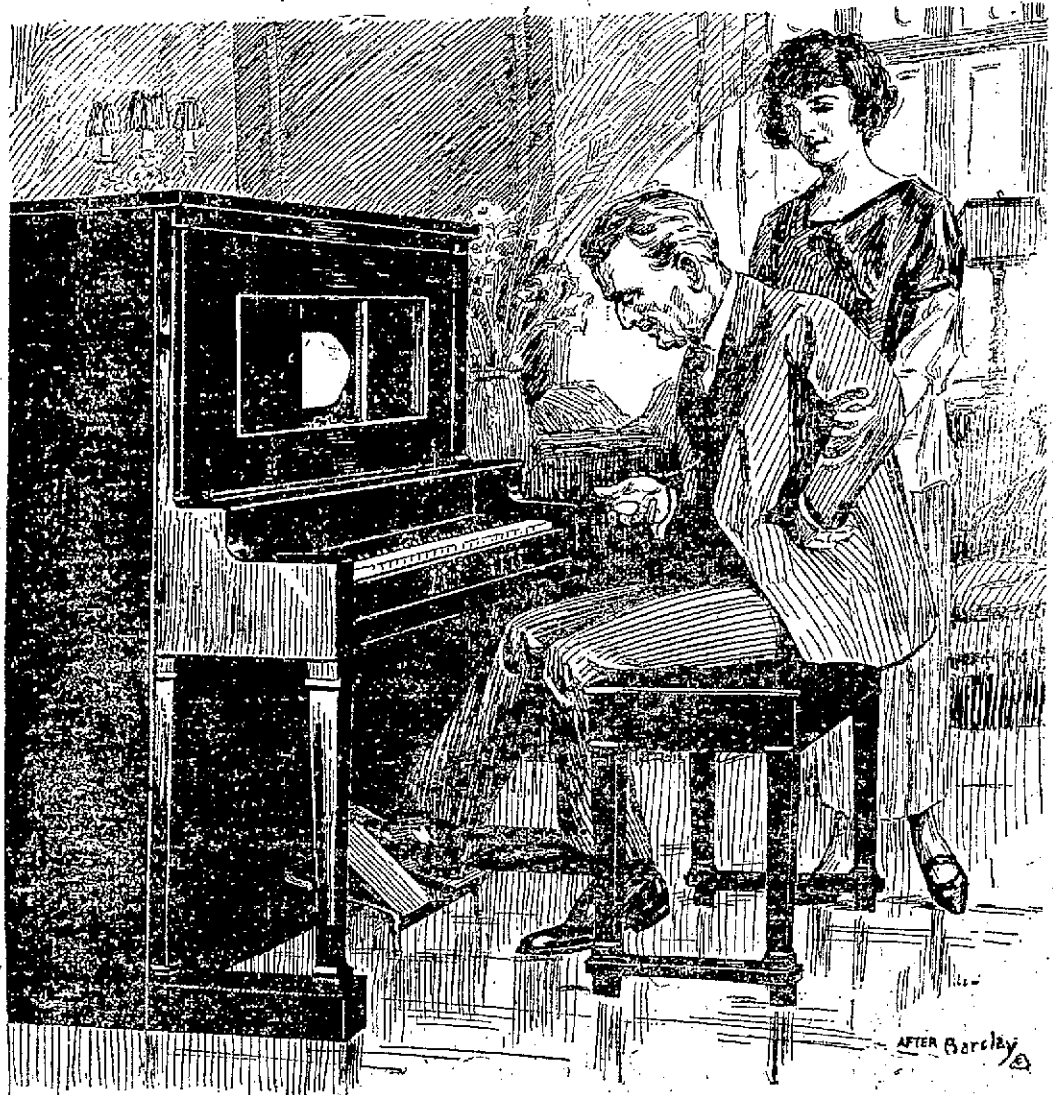

(2) A HOLLAND PIANO IS INEXPENSIVE. All the machinery required to perfect their piano is run indirectly by water power. A great saving in the cost of manufacture.

(3) THE WORKMANSHIP in a Holland is not an acquisition of one generation, but a pedigree of skill, running through a long period, where sons have succeeded fathers in some particular branch of the art, and who, in a great part, have suggested improvements where such were possible.

We have the HOLLAND in both player and upright. SPECIAL BARGAIN THIS MONTH—MAHOGANY UPRIGHT $390. Terms, $39 down and $15 per month.
